SHARP FIGHTING BETWEEN POLICE AND GENDARMES.

Great Trouble Is Expected During Debate Next Week.

BRUSSELS, April 11.—Sharp fighting between strikers and gendarmes occurred this morning at Despergines, near Charleroi. Several strikers attacked and stoned a body of gendarmes, who retaliated by firing their revolvers. A sharp fusillade followed and the gendarmes were compelled to retreat. A squadron of Lancers, however, galloped up and dispersed the mob.

A semblance of order was restored among the rioters in the Rue Stevens early this morning. The police, who had borne the brunt of the fighting, were strongly reinforced by the gendarmes and civil guards with loaded rifles. Orders were issued to use all the force necessary to drive the mob out of the Maison Du Peuple. Just as the order was about to be executed the chiefs of the Socialists forced to evacuate the building quietly. Estimates of the number wounded during the riot vary from forty to one hundred, but scores of injured were carried off and hidden by friends.

A large number of rioters were arrested and detained.
The Burgomasters of Brussels and suburban municipalities have proclaimed that meetings of more than ten persons are prohibited and that any citizen carrying a revolver shall be liable to six months' imprisonment.
All centers of agitation are closing today with hundreds. Bands of cavalry are continually patrolling the streets and guarding the shops which were threatened with plundering by the rioters.
A manifesto signed by the general council of the labor party has been widely posted. It demands a revision of the constitution and universal suffrage.
Telegrams from the country districts indicate the widespread character of the movement, which threatens to culminate in a grand coup next week, during the reform debate in Parliament.
A thousand demonstrators caused great trouble at St. Nicholas last night until routed by repeated charges of the gendarmes.
At La Louvre 6,000 men ceased work, forcing the workers in the large industrial establishments at La Louvre and Haine St. Pierre to join them. The strikers threaten to burn all factories where the workers refuse to quit.

DETROIT, Mich., April 11.—Professor Joseph Miller at 12 o'clock confessed to committing the murder of Carrie M. Jennett.
After being in the sweat box an hour and twenty minutes Miller broke down and confessed the crime. Assistant Prosecutor Morgan, three officers and the official stenographer of the Police Department were present. Miller said that he had ill relations with the girl and was responsible for her condition. He said he offered to send Miss Jennett to a lying-in hospital, but she refused to go, insisting that he leave his family and go to some other city with her. This he would not do. Wednesday night when he started from home for the lying-in hospital he had an engagement with the girl and intended to kill her.
He took the hatchet that was found by the officers yesterday in his kitchen with him. He suggested this on Seventh street on his way to the meeting. When he left the hotel-rooms he secured the hatchet and proceeded to the corner of Fourteenth and Warren avenues, where he met Miss Jennett. They walked over to Thirteenth street and out to where the killing was done. Miller says they sat down on the sidewalk and talked for a while, the girl urging him to abandon his family and leave the city with her. He then whipped out the hatchet and struck her in the head. When asked why he had not remembered anything after the first blow, until he found himself wiping the blood off his hatchet on the grass in the vacant lot.

GOVERNMENT OPENS FIRE ON EX-CHIEF CLERK DIMMICK.

Woman is Said to Figure in the Case—Cashier Cole Tells of the Instructions He Was Given by the Suspected Man.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—The United States District Court-room was crowded with spectators when the case of Walter N. Dimmick was called. Among them were Colonel Babcock of the Sub-Treasury and Thomas Burns. There was also an array of Federal officials, including Chief Wikke of the Secret Service, Special Agent Hazen and his assistants, and John P. Bergin, Government safe and lock expert.

DIMMICK WAS PALE.
Dimmick was a trifle pale, but composed and neat. He bears the extraordinary ordeal well.
Promptly at 11 o'clock Judge De Haven called the case, and proceedings began very quietly.

WOMAN IN THE CASE.
It is stated that Government detectives have secured evidence to the effect that Dimmick gave at least a large part of the missing $30,000 to a woman. This is a new feature in the case.

LEACH ON THE STAND.
F. A. Leach took the stand and made a formal statement to the effect that he became Superintendent of the Mint on August 1, 1897, and testified that the gold was placed in $5,000 sacks without regard to denomination. Then he was withdrawn for the present and Cashier W. Cole substituted.
Judge De Haven suggested that it would be better to get through with a witness after placing him on the stand. Bert Schlessinger, special prosecutor for the Government, stated that Mr. Leach's statement was merely preliminary, and was not intended for his direct examination.

CASHIER COLE TESTIFIES.
Cashier Cole then testified to the manner of storing the coin in sacks, and the daily minutiae of counting the cash. The cash account was balanced daily at the conclusion of business. At noon, when he went to lunch, the vaults were left in charge of Captain Fitzpatrick, the vault porter.

In making the count, Walter N. Dimmick assisted and checked up. The money in sealed sacks was not counted, the figures on the sacks being taken. The sacks themselves were counted. If there was any discrepancy between the figures of witness and those of Dimmick, they would be gone over till the count of both agreed.

Some of the coin in the cashier's vaults were on racks and some were in the racks because the vault was "overcrowded." On the west side the sacks were filled with mixed coin. Some of it double eagles. The floors and racks were piled high on the racks in the pigeon holes on the north and east sides of the vault. The coin racks were arranged in pigeon holes, one for each sack. There were 400 pigeon holes, supposed to contain 400 sacks.

SACKS OF COIN.
In making the count, the sacks on the floor and racks and those visible in the racks would be counted. The pigeon holes obscured from view would be counted as each containing a $5,000 sack.

When the count of the $30,000 was discovered.
"What was Mr. Dimmick's position in the Mint at that time?" asked Schlessinger.

"Clock and Assistant Superintendent," replied Cole.
"In making the count, would Dimmick call off the number of sacks to you?"

"Yes."
CROSS-EXAMINATION.
This closed the direct examination, and Geo. D. Collins took up the cross examination for the defense. He brought out the fact that at the start the count for some months prior to the discovery of the theft was largely satisfactory. Witness said a large portion of the six dozen holes on the east side of the vault were obscured by the coin laden racks.

"Did you call the racks to one side and count the sacks in the pigeon holes?" asked Collins.

"No."
"Did Dimmick pull the racks aside and count the sacks in the pigeon holes?"

"No."
"You both assumed that the pigeon holes were all full and counted them as such?"

"Yes."
"Then for some time prior to June 27, 1901, the sacks in these pigeon holes were not actually counted?"

"Neither you nor Dimmick actually saw the pigeon holes or the sacks they were supposed to contain?"

"Yes."
CAPACITY OF THE VAULT.
"What was the storage capacity of the vault?"

"Its normal capacity was $6,000,000, but at one time $25,000,000 was stored in it."
"When did it contain $25,000,000?"

"On June 22, 1901."
"How was it stored?"

"The sacks were all full and the sacks were piled on the floor and the racks and on the racks above the pigeon holes."
The witness then testified that on September 1, 1901, the cashier's vault, contained $10,650,000; on November 1, 1900, $8,150,000; on January 2, 1901, $9,140,000; on February 15, 1901, $13,750,000; on May 15, 1901, $20,350,000; and on June 22, 1901, $25,000,000.

"What persons were there other than yourself and Dimmick in making the count?"

"Nobody that I remember of."

"Where did you reside prior to becoming cashier of the Mint?"

"Martinez in this State."

FIRE IN AN ALAMEDA CONVENT.

Sisters and Students
Have to Flee for Their Lives.

ALAMEDA, April 11.—This morning at 5:30 twenty-five young ladies attended in their night robes ran hysterically from Notre Dame Convent on Chestnut street, while from the doors and windows of the building great clouds of smoke and flames belched forth. The young ladies were at once taken into the home of Mrs. Jehu, who resides near the convent.

The fire was discovered at an early hour, just as the boarders were called. Owing to the rapidity with which the flames gained headway the young ladies were compelled to leave the building in great haste. As soon as the convent was cleared of its occupants neighbors began carrying out valuables.

Six planes were removed from the burning structure, together with sewing machines, trunks and furniture.

Immediately upon discovery of the conflagration the Fire Department was notified and to the good work of the department the saving of the building is due. The department arrived on the scene when the building was apparently lost.

The fire had worked its way up from the basement, where it had started, to the roof and the entire front partition was on fire.

From 6 o'clock until 9 a. m. the men labored to save the convent, with the result that the structure, though badly burned inside, the outer walls were saved.

The fire is supposed to have started in the motor room in the basement, but it is estimated that it will amount to several thousand dollars.

FACE BLACKENED.
"Did you see the defendant at the time you attended O'Connor?" asked Allen.

"A minute or so before," answered Dr. Childs, "I saw a man walking down the street and he was wearing a black hat and he carried a coat over his arm. It was impossible for me to tell what else he had with him."

ROBERT WOODS HAS HIS HEARING IN SACRAMENTO COURT.

SACRAMENTO, April 11.—Robert W. Woods, a young man who shot and killed Van Curtis Dodge in a duel on March 17 last, had his preliminary examination before City Justice Anderson today. Dodge had claimed Woods deceived his daughter and then refused to marry her.

The evidence showed that Dodge had deliberately gone to the bridge armed with two pistols to meet Woods and kill him. Woods had almost entirely recovered from his wounds. Dodge died a few hours after being shot. Justice Anderson discharged Woods.

ELKS WILL HOLD A STREET FAIR IN JUNE.

The local lodge of Elks has decided to give a grand street fair for the benefit of the building fund. The fair will be opened about the middle of June and will be continued for ten days. At that time there will be 10,000 Shriners in San Francisco, besides thousands of Knights of Pythias and commercial travelers and the members of the lodge say that the success of the undertaking is already assured, providing they have the support and the assistance of the merchants and commercial bodies. They held that nothing could be of more benefit nor a greater advertising medium than the fair.

The present plan is to hold the fair on the streets surrounding the High School and Lafayette Square. Every attraction generally found at street fairs, including a midway, will be in evidence.

At a meeting of the lodge last evening the following representative citizens were appointed a committee to devise ways and means: M. L. Schuttler, L. C. Capwell, John A. Britton, Theodore Gier, C. J. Hesseman, George W. Reed, Dr. L. T. Thistle, Dr. H. P. Travers, M. J. Keeler and C. H. Hawbacker.

DEVINE'S CASE HEARD IN COURT

Witnesses Tell How John J. O'Connor Was Shot Down While He Was Working at Emeryville.

The preliminary hearing of aged Thomas Devine, who murdered John J. O'Connor, his friend of a quarter of a century, at the pumping plant at Shell Mound Park on the morning of March 21, was begun before Justice of the Peace Quinn this morning.

The aged defendant appeared calm and collected in the court-room. He was cleanly shaven. He wore a black sweater and he had discarded the working suit he wore when the deed was committed for a neat black suit.

The court-room was crowded, among the spectators being many of the mutual friends of both O'Connor and Devine. The widow and several of the children of the deceased were present, as well as the children of Devine.

District Attorney Allen conducted the prosecution and Devine was represented by Attorney W. H. Jordan, Fred C. Clift and Melvin C. Chapman.

The first witness was Dr. J. E. Childs of Eighth and Magnolia streets, who testified that he was called to attend O'Connor about fifteen minutes before he died. He said he first found O'Connor lying upon his back, gasping for breath, his head lying in a pool of blood. This, he said, was near the pumping plant at Shell Mound Park. He said he made an examination and found a bullet wound in the top of the head. He testified that O'Connor died at 12:15 o'clock on March 31.

Dr. Childs then described the autopsy which he held, assisted by Dr. Woods. "What, in your opinion," asked District Attorney Allen, "was the cause of John J. O'Connor's death?"

"Shock, due to two gunshot wounds," answered Dr. Childs.

"Did you see the defendant at the time you attended O'Connor?" asked Allen.

"A minute or so before," answered Dr. Childs, "I saw a man walking down the street and he was wearing a black hat and he carried a coat over his arm. It was impossible for me to tell what else he had with him."

The other bullet, he said, had entered the back of the man's head.

"Who suggested I shoot first?" asked Chapman. "You or O'Connor?"

"O'Connor prayed."

"He did," he said "all up with me," then he commenced praying.

"What did he say when he prayed?"

"I could not distinguish all of it,"

"He might have been praying for recovery as well as for the release of his soul, might he not?"

"Why were you so anxious to get an ante-mortem statement from him?"

"My instructor in medical jurisprudence always advised me to secure an ante-mortem statement and my experience has taught me the same thing."

"Didn't you think you were tampering with him by telling him again and again that he was going to die?" asked Chapman.

"I did not; I was trying to determine whether he was conscious."

"Couldn't you have found a subject less glib than that of death?"

"I have ascertained the state of his mind."

PRESIDENT ON HIS WAY HOME.

HE TAKES A WALK THROUGH THE GARDENS IN THE SOUTH

PINE FOREST INN, Summerville, S. C., April 10.—The President and members of his party were today given an option to follow their own inclination with respect to the disposition of their time. No formal program had been arranged beyond a visit to the farm, a short distance from the inn. When he arose this morning the President expressed himself as having had a most refreshing sleep and after breakfasting was taken for a short ride. Attorney General Knox decided to put in the morning playing golf and was early on the links as were a number of others of the party, while not a few contented themselves with strolling through the gardens or remaining on the veranda of the inn. Secretary Wilson will not return to Washington with the President, having decided to make a short visit to Southern Georgia, Florida and Alabama.

The party will leave this afternoon for Washington, where the train is due to arrive tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT LEAVES

SUMMERVILLE, S. C., April 10.—The President and party left here at 2:22 this afternoon for Washington.

BRUTAL MURDER IN DETROIT.

BODY FOUND ON WALK WITH A DEEP GASH OVER THE EYE

DETROIT, April 10.—While the police were bending all efforts early today toward running down the slayer of Miss Jennett, whose mutilated body was found on Thirteenth street last night, a second brutal murder was discovered.

The body of George Henry Heywood was found lying in a pool of blood on the sidewalk on another street, a half block west of Junction avenue, at 5:30 o'clock this morning, a deep gash over the left eye from which the brains oozed, telling the cause of death.

Heywood was head bookkeeper at the Michigan Iron Works and attended a dance at Baker Hall, corner of Eaker and Seventeenth streets, last night. His wife had intended to accompany him, but was ill and gave it up. It is not known what time he started for home, but he was found within one hundred yards of his home and had evidently been dead some hours.

Detectives arrested Wm. F. Jones, a roomer in Heywood's house. The two men are said to have quarreled frequently. About seventy-five feet from where the body was found a revolver lay in the alley. The Negro boy identified it as belonging to Jones. Whether it could have caused the wound is the question which the police will fathom.

FRECKLES AND RED HAIR.
THE PHILIPPINE CHARGES.

Governor Gage's enemies travel up and down a short and narrow beat giving reasons for their disapprobation. The disapproval itself is copious and fluent, and picturesque with epithets, adjectives and "language" of a certain sort, but it has mighty little pith. The core of fact or positively stated ground for criticism is so small as to be hardly discernible. It is trying to make bricks out of a mountain of mud and a grain of sand.

As President Lincoln said when he saw Alexander H. Stephens strip off five overcoats: "It was the biggest shuck to the smallest nubbins that I ever saw."

Governor Gage's opponents never mention the public expenditure during the last three years any more than they give the real reasons for their opposition to him. The showing of economy would make criticism ridiculous. The tax rate is not mentioned, because it has been lowered through the intelligent vetoes of the Governor and the policy he enforced on the public institutions. It is said that he has filled the offices with "his creatures." That is easy to say, but after all, what does it mean, what does it signify? In a sense, every man appointed to an office by another is the latter's creature. But what of it?

Has not the State been well served by these so-called creatures of Governor Gage? Have not scandalous practices in the public institutions been stopped and taxes reduced? Does not efficiency and economy prevail throughout the public service?

Is it to be supposed that a man bent on carrying out reforms and cutting down expenses would appoint men opposed to his policy or retain in office men responsible for extravagance? Naturally the hostile critics resort to epithets and generalities. A bill of particulars temperately discussed would put them to flight. They have nothing to put against hard facts but hard words.

The trick of abusing the Governor because he stands by his friends and berating his friends because they stand by the Governor is a sort of walk around that always ends where it began. It is simply an evidence of enmity on grounds that are withheld and for which some excuse must be given. As the big boy said when he kicked the little one, "Darn his picture! His dad has red hair and his sister is freckled!"

The opposition to Governor Gage is based on congenital red hair and freckles, but it's mighty poor powder in a fight.

A SINISTER GIFT.

It is stated that the Northwestern University, situated at Evanston, a suburb of Chicago, is likely to receive a gift of $1,000,000 from William Deering, the head of the great Deering harvester works. It is not unusual for rich men to make large gifts to educational institutions, and a gift from Mr. Deering would ordinarily excite no other comment than a commendation of his liberality and public spirit.

But there is an underlying principle that brings this particular gift into question and opens up a field for discussion of a very important matter concerning higher education. The Deering Harvester Works are in a combine familiarly known as a trust. So much to start with. Henry Wade Rogers, the late president of Northwestern University, was practically forced to resign because he had expressed opinions on public questions that greatly offended men of the class to which Mr. Deering belongs. It is probably true that Professor Rogers was somewhat forward in the expression of his opinions, and that he thrust his views on the public with more frequency and insistence than good taste and the circumstances of his position justified, but this fault carries its own correction. Professor Rogers was indiscreetly offensive in his utterances concerning the Philippines and Cuba, but this would have been passed over, apparently, if he had not offended the powerful trust interests.

Mr. Deering is president of the Board of Trustees of the University, and when Professor Rogers "resigned" the presidency of the institution, he announced that if a satisfactory man could be found to fill the vacancy the trustees would obtain an additional $1,000,000 for the endowment fund. The search for a president naturally simmered down to a hunt for a man who embodied Mr. Deering's ideals.

This may be all right, the new man may be a thoroughly independent, capable and conscientious man, but does not the method of his selection and the reasons which dictated it suggest that he is likely to be a better representative of the ideals of the Deering Harvester Works than of unbiased learning and untrammelled thought? Does not the forcing out of men of one school of moral and political philosophy and the substitution in their places of men of a totally different school, under pressure of large donations from rich men allied with corporate organizations, the existence presents a moral and social issue, carry the sinister inference that our institutions of higher education are falling under the domination of wealth as such? Are they, too, being merged in the community of interest plan which seems devised to absorb all wealth in one organization and leave everything else outside? It is something worth considering.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES.

WEDDINGS, LUNCHEONS AND RECEPTIONS PLANNED BY SMART SET.

The marriage of Mrs. Kate E. McIntosh and Warren S. Palmer was solemnized last evening at St. John's Episcopal Church, Rev. Martin N. Ray officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate relatives of the parties concerned, the bride being attended by her two little nieces, Marie Allen and May Tennent. The groom's brother, Samuel Palmer, was best man.

The bride was becomingly attired in an imported gown of pale blue silk, elaborately trimmed with French knots and white lace. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

The two small attendants were daintily frocked of organdie, one in pink and other in blue.

After the ceremony at the church a large reception was held at the future home of the newly wedded pair, on Ninth and Madison streets. About 200 guests had been invited to the reception and the handsome residence was the scene of a brilliant gathering. The apartments were all lavishly decorated, white roses and carnations being used in the reception room. The bride is very well known in Oakland in literary, musical and educational circles. She has been principal of the Fruitvale school for a number of years and is a native of some note. The groom is a California University graduate and was for some years resident engineer for the Southern Pacific Company. He is now superintendent of the Western division of the Southern Pacific Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will make an extended tour of the principal Eastern cities and on their return will reside in the old Grayson mansion at Ninth and Madison streets.

WHIST TOURNAMENT.

The lady managers in charge of the Whist Tournament at Masonic Hall last Wednesday evening have about completed all their arrangements. About twenty beautiful prizes have been donated which are on exhibition at Smith Brothers' store. There has been a lively demand for tickets so a large crowd is promised. The young ladies who will score are: Misses Grace Con, May Hogan, Bertha Grandyear, Maud Stephens, Kathleen Lyman, Marion Turner, Hazel Hogan, Kathryn Kirk, Clarisse Graves, Margaret Nolan, Nellie Peters, Manie Marcellin, Nita Koenig, Loretta Knapp, Almie Nolan, Jessie Wheeland, Virginia Tyrrell, Gertrude Plummer, Clea Passy, Isabel Kenna, Margaret Neale, May McDonald, Inez Reed.

BELCHER-SMITH.

A wedding of interest to the younger set took place Tuesday night at the home of Judge and Mrs. Stanley A. Smith on Twelfth street, when Emma

That spare room would give you a lot of comfort and convenience if it were furnished. Wouldn't it? "But it will cost fifty dollars to do it, and I haven't that much," you reply.

Don't let that worry you. We have a splendid stock of good Furniture and Carpets.

We would be pleased to deliver to your home tomorrow any fifty dollars' worth of it that you may select.

And you pay us a dollar a week.

Now doesn't that spare room look unnecessarily bare?

Elizabeth, the younger daughter of the house, became the bride of William Johnson Belcher of San Francisco. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Brown of the First Congregational Church. The house was artistically decorated with palms and pink flowers, fruit blossoms being used with fine effect.

At 3:30 the strains of the wedding march led forth and the bride entered under the arm of her father. She was gowned exquisitely in white crepe de chine, kindly made over taffeta and adorned with rare old lace, and carried bride's roses. The only attendants were the two little nieces of the groom, Misses Roberta and Adeline Belcher, who were attired in blue and pink, and carried white sweet peas. After the ceremony, which was witnessed by only the relatives and intimate friends, a wedding supper was served, after which the young couple departed for San Francisco and left today for a tour of the Southern California resorts.

ODD FELLOWS BALL.

The Odd Fellows' ball in Reed Hall last night was a large affair. At least 700 people passed the door.

The decorating scheme was decidedly unique and beautiful. Over the main stairway was built a bower of ferns, palms and bamboo, and in the hall were hundreds of electric globes sparkling through streamers of green which were strung across the hall on the ceiling and along the walls.

The electric globes were colored red, green and yellow, and while one color was lit, the others would be turned out, and the effect was very beautiful.

A program of twenty dances was enjoyed by those present, and refreshments were served.

The officers of the evening were: Frank M. Cattell, floor manager; assistants, W. H. Ebers, H. Jones, J. J. McVey, F. L. Gove, S. A. Jackson, T. M. Palmer; Reception Committee—C. F. Reuter, G. L. Schmidt, L. Bohn, M. H. Morse, G. L. C. Pope, A. A. Reiser.

KNIGHT LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Robert Knight will give a luncheon this afternoon, complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Henry Dieckmann. Covers will be laid for twelve, and the decorations are to be entirely green blossoms. Mrs. Knight's guests are to be: Mrs. Henry Dieckmann, Mrs. Harnden Crawford of New York, Miss Sinclair, Mrs. Robert Lee Stephens, Mrs. Edson Adams, Miss Florine Brown, Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts, Mrs. Henry Hinkley, Mrs. Charles Minnigood, Mrs. Kent Chabot, Miss Chabot and Miss Claire Chabot.

KING'S DAUGHTERS.

The King's Daughters of the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church will hold an entertainment at Masonic Hall this evening. The following talent will render the program: Dramatic reader, Miss Ada Bibby; soprano, Mrs. M. K. Henderson; baritone, Alfred C. Reid; accompanist, Mrs. Wm. Bibby.

ZETA PSI DINNER.

The annual banquet of the Zeta Psi Fraternity of the Pacific Coast will be held at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, on Saturday evening, April 26, at 7 o'clock. It is expected that there will be a large attendance of delegates. The committee in charge of the affair is as follows: P. E. Bowles, Iowa '82, C. C. Field, Ala '95, F. S. Glass, Iowa '93, H. C. Hubbard, Ill '03, L. W. Robbins, Iowa '04.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Another Alameda girl to make her debut before a London audience is Miss Margaret Brunisch. It will be remembered that she went to Europe last November to complete the musical studies commenced here, and now comes that she is to make her first appearance before a London public this month.

Miss Edith Baskett of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting Oakland and is a guest of Mrs. Laz Rosenberg of 214 Eleventh street. After remaining here a few days she will go to San Mateo to make a visit to her brother, Frank Baskett, who married Miss Gladys Rosenberg, formerly of Oakland. The latter have a very pretty country home at San Mateo.

GOOD WORK FOR HARBOR OF OAKLAND.

SENATOR PERKINS GETS AN IMPORTANT AMENDMENT IN THE BILL.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The Senate Committee on Commerce yesterday completed consideration of the river and harbor bill, and will report the bill at once with numerous amendments. All items in the bill affecting California as passed by the House are retained in the bill and two other important ones added. One is an appropriation and authorization for continuing contracts aggregating $88,000 for completing the Oakland harbor project, and the other is an appropriation and authorized contracts aggregating $225,000 for the construction of the Mormon channel cut off at Stockton. Still another item of minor importance, is that ordering the survey of Belvedere harbor, San Francisco bay, with a view to its improvement. All three items were secured by Senator Perkins, who is a member of the Commerce Committee.

The provision regarding Oakland harbor reads as follows: "Improving Oakland harbor, California: For providing a channel 500 feet wide and twenty-five feet deep from San Francisco bay to Chestnut street; thence 300 feet wide and 25 feet deep to Fallon street; thence 300 feet wide and 17 feet deep to the tidal basin, and thence 300 feet wide and 12 feet deep around said tidal basin, in accordance with the project and estimate contained in House document 232, Fifty-sixth Congress, second session, $100,000; provided that a contract or contracts may be entered by the Secretary of War for such materials and work as may be necessary to prosecute said project, to be paid for as appropriations may from time to time be made by law, not to exceed in the aggregate $88,000, exclusive of the amounts herein and heretofore appropriated."

Dyspepsia in its worst forms will yield to the use of Carter's Little Liver Pills, aided by Carter's Little Liver Pills. They not only relieve present distress, but strengthen the stomach and digestive apparatus.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION.

San Francisco District of the Epworth League meets at College Park, San Jose, April 25 to 27. On account of this meeting the Southern Pacific Company has offered a special rate of one fare and one-third for a round trip for attendants. Tickets on sale at all S. P. Co.'s ticket offices.

Exceptional Values in Ready-to-wear Garments

Tailor Frocks at $17.50 and $20.00

Taft & Penroyer offer you today a number of suits which may well be called "exceptional values". In style, cut and material, they are first class. Frocks of twice their price could not be better tailored. Descriptions of four of the twelve styles shown follows.

At $17.50
A natty frock of basket weave chevrot in blue, gray, tan, brown, olive, and red. The blouse has a belt, vest and collar of stitched broadcloth and is lined with white satin. The skirt has a graduated flounce and hangs in the approved summer style.

There's another suit of basket weave chevrot—severely plain, distinctly tailor made. The jacket is a double breasted eton with broad, low collar. The sleeve flares and has a cuff. The skirt carries a graduated flounce. You may choose it in red, brown, blue or tan. Either of these frocks is easily worth $22.50

Here's a stunning Gibson suit of finest chevrot, blue or black. The collar of the blouse is of peau de soie, tailor stitched, and its lining is taffeta. Mohair bows and rings fasten it. The graduated flounce, skirt fits tight over the hips and flares wide. You'll pronounce it a $27.50 value.

More elaborate is this frock—a blue or grey chevrot, lightly woven. Its blouse has a broad collar and belt trimmed with moire bands. It is satin lined and fastens with silver buttons and chains. The sleeve is full and has a cuff. The skirt has a graduated flounce outlined with five rows of stitching. No $30.00 suit could be more fetching or give better service.

Golf Skirts
We have been compelled to buy another lot of our special golf skirts, so great has been the call for them. They are five-gore, welt seam chevrot skirts, with circular flounce stitched eight times around. They ordinarily sell for $4.50 each.
$2.50 each.

Silk Waists

HAYWARD'S COMMITTEE AFTER TOWN OFFICIALS

Town Clerk Will Be Charged Interest for Money He Retained—What They Say About Marshal Ramage.

HAYWARD, April 11.—An adjourned meeting of the Town Trustees was held last night for the purpose of hearing the report of the Finance Committee which had been appointed as a special committee to investigate the condition of the town accounts as kept by Town Clerk Obermuller and Marshal Ramage.

The meeting opened with the reading of the committee's report.

At the same time the delinquent tax list as verified by Marshal Ramage and Clerk Obermuller was read.

Between the reading of the committee's report the supplemental report of Expert Webb N. Pierce was read. The report agreed with that of the Finance Committee and added a number of suggestions as to the future manner in which the books should be kept.

Following is the complete report of the special committee on the books of the town as rendered by the committee at last night's meeting:

THE REPORT.

"Hayward, Cal., April 7, 1902.

"To the Hon. the Board of Trustees of the Town of Hayward—Gentlemen:

The undersigned, constituting the Finance Committee of your Board, to whom the matter of examining the receipts and books of Town Clerk John A. Obermuller, Town Marshal W. J. Ramage, together with the report of the expert, Webb Pierce, who was heretofore appointed by your Board to expert the books of the said officials, beg leave to report as follows:

"First—Your committee requested Town Clerk John A. Obermuller to present for their inspection the delinquent tax list delivered to him by Marshal W. J. Ramage on the 20th day of January, 1902. Mr. Obermuller admitted that such a delinquent list had been delivered to him on the said date, and that he is unable to produce the same. He, however, furnished your committee with what purports to be a duplicate of the said list, which said duplicate is certified to by Town Marshal W. J. Ramage. Said duplicate list, together with what purports to be a duplicate of the same, passed from the Clerk to the Marshal for the said list are hereto attached and made a part of this report. According to the said duplicate list, among other names appears the name of A. Alexander, whose tax bill was numbered 47 and the amount of whose delinquent tax is shown to be $53.00. Upon the duplicate list it is shown that A. Alexander paid the said tax of $53.00 on the 30th day of December, 1901, before the said tax was delinquent. Mr. Obermuller stated that this tax of $53.00 was paid to him subsequent to the 20th day of January, 1902, and that the figures in the assessment roll-book showing said tax of $53.00 are wrong. Mr. Obermuller also states that the figures appearing upon the said list, showing a said tax to have been paid on the said 30th day of December, 1901 are also wrong.

DELINQUENT TAXES.

The roll-book does not show when the delinquent taxes of J. Hough, K. Haas, B. E. Keating, John Wagner and Bernard Laffey were paid. Mr. Obermuller states that these delinquent taxes, which were paid by him, are not marked paid on the roll-book, but that he has kept no record as to when the same were paid to him. When the sewer rent was paid to him by Wm. Meek, he states that the said rent was received sometime during the year 1901. Your committee examining the stub-books, showing collections for personal property tax made up by the Town Clerk for the year 1901, beginning with stub No. 127, extending to and including stub No. 137, omitting therefrom, however, stubs No. 90 and 100, the total as shown by said stubs is $25.10. Mr. Obermuller stated to your committee, that he has collected no personal property taxes since January 1, 1902. According to the official record issued by Town Treasurer F. B. Haas, Mr. Obermuller paid into the treasury for personal property taxes on the 20th day of March, 1902, the sum of $478.18, showing a collection of $453.08 more than the year 1901. The sum of $478.18, showing a collection of $453.08 more than the year 1901. The sum of $478.18, showing a collection of $453.08 more than the year 1901.

EXAMINED BOOKS.

Your committee then examined the stub-books, showing collections for personal property taxes during the year 1900 covering stubs Nos. 1 to 73 inclusive, and this examination shows that Mr. Obermuller collected during the year 1900 the sum of $104.29. These collections were made from May 3, 1900 to December 31, 1900. The sum of $104.29, showing a collection of $104.29 more than the year 1901.
